

wool & honey
yarn, fiber and other sweet delights

Trunk Show August 2nd & 3rd Why Knot Fibers & Kate Hust

Signature Bee Soap

Back in Stock!

Over the past few years, these guest soaps have become a staple at Wool & Honey. Lightly scented with a touch of sparkle, these decadent soaps are made with shea butter and royal jelly--perfect for special guests or the Queen Bee.

$3.95

Learn to Spin Class

August 24th & 31st

Come join the frenzy on Friday, August 2nd 6-9pm and Saturday 10-4pm with gorgeous hand-dyed and hand-spun yarns from Why Knot Fibers. Along with Kate Hust of Cadillac with her stunning hand-made clay dishes and home accessories. All of these one of a kind items will be here only for the weekend so don't miss out!

Find some special items to add to your home, a gift for those fiber fanatics you know or splurge on something special for yourself!

Why Knot Fibers

Kat Eldred of Why Knot Fibers is from right here in Traverse City where she picked up her mother's 30-year-old drop spindle only a couple of years back. This instant love expanded into spinning on a wheel and even into hand-dyed yarn.

Kate Hust

11-1 pm

Rumpelstiltskin, Sleeping Beauty - spinning wheels are the magic found in fairytales! After you've picked up the basics of spinning with a drop spindle you are ready to try out a wheel!

$40.00

Kate Hust from Cadillac takes clay art to a new level! Each piece has something extra in either their shape, an accompanying handmade spoon, feather imprints or hand-made paper to complete a journal bound in a cover made of a clay master piece.

