As a reminder, we will be closing the store for renovations at 4 pm on Saturday, March 19th and re-opening on Saturday, April 9th at 9 am.

We can't wait to see you.

Just in time for Spring, this Little Willet cardigan is knitted from the top down with an applied i-cord edge and round yoke. The yoke and sleeves are worked in garter stitch, and the body in stockinette, making a wonderful project for a new mama just learning to knit.

The yarn, also named Willet, is a brilliant collaboration between Quince & Co. and California cotton growers--it's a 100% USA grown, spun and dyed cotton....and it's ecologically responsible, to boot. Soft, drapey and eco-friendly, Willet is the perfect choice for baby sweaters.

And, because this is your project, you can choose from any of the nautical-themed colors below. (Our sample was knit with Oar, a fresh, peachy-coral.)

This kit includes an easy-to-read pattern and 2 (3, 3, 4, 4) skeins of Quince & Co. Willet in your choice of colors.
