Happy Fuzzy Yarn

Happy Fuzzy Yarn makes yarn and fiber for people who lust after yarn - for those of us who are obsessed with yarn. And by "are obsessed with" we mean "want to roll around naked in it." Riin makes handspun yarn that will make you drool and fiber that will make you blush. Happy Fuzzy Yarn comes to us from Ann Arbor Michigan and began in 2006. Riin has been dying and spinning since her 20's and the creativity hasn't stopped since!

Sew Ewe-nique Designs

Sew Ewe-nique Designs is just as the name describes it, full of sewn items that are truly unique! Covered buttons, clutches, headbands, earrings, knit bow headbands and more! Kelly, a Traverse City local, only creates pieces that she would wear herself. The idea for sew-ewe-nique was when people would ask Kelly about the pieces she was wearing, where could they get that? So in 2010 Sew Ewe-nique started to come alive. Fiber and art is practically a gene for Kelly and what a great one at that!
