L LAINE MAGAZINE:
ISSUE 3

We were so focused on revealing the Stone Wool surprise late last night that we forgot to mention our (even bigger!) news....we've opened up pre-orders for Laine Magazine Issue 3.

(And yes, that's Stone Wool Cormo in the picture--the very reason we meant to announce these two things together!)

The long-anticipated fall/winter issue of Laine Magazine was sent to the printer on Wednesday, which means our order will be arriving here in just over three weeks. Laine has become one of the most beloved publications at the shop; it's an absolutely stunning Finnish magazine filled with intimate interviews, in-depth yarn profiles, recipes, city guides and modern classic knitting patterns. It's more than a magazine--it's more like a book!--and it's certainly about much more than just knitting.

It's about Life.

Issue Three was photographed in the Outer Hebrides of Scotland, the place that many consider the birthplace of the modern knitting movement. Rugged and rustic, it's the perfect place to feature wooly tweeds and textured knits. We've been waiting this issue for months--Fall is Knitting Season!

Find Laine Magazine Issue 3 HERE.

We're also waiting on the third reprint of Issues 1 + 2 within the next few weeks--they have been some our most popular sellers in the shop! While we're so glad to be placing another order, we do not expect another reprint of the first two issues; if you've been waiting to order these (or if you're just discovering Laine for the first time!), this would be your chance.
