THE SLEEPING BEAR YARN CLUB: DECEMBER 2017 GLEN HAVEN CANNERY

We are thrilled to announce the December 2017 selections for the Sleeping Bear Yarn Club. Dyed exclusively for us by Ross of Dye for Knitting in Oklahoma, this deep, variegated red is festive, luxurious and and makes the kind of statement only a rich crimson can.

Glen Haven, located on Sleeping Bear Bay, developed as a Lake Michigan deep water port to service shipping traffic with firewood, lumber and other supplies. Glen Haven Canning Co. building was first used as a warehouse and later as a cannery for cherries in the 1920s. It is now the Cannery Boathouse Museum, housing historic small wooden boats used to travel the Manitou Passage.

*** pre-order by November 15th *****

December's delightful little package will include a skein of Dye for Knitting's Alexander Sock (70% superwash Merino wool, 20% yak, 10% nylon--437 yds, 100 g), a Red Garnet stitch marker and your choice of the Cariño Shawl, the Scarlet Arches Socks or the Saga's Holiday Dress, as well as the free gifts for NEW 12-month members, Thank You gifts for Year Two members and Leelanau Lifetime Members.*

NEON + SPECKLES =
ONE HAPPY SHAWL KIT

Is there anything happier than rainbows? How about rainbows AND speckles?!?

The Girl from the Grocery Store is an asymmetrical shawl with a lot of character--and a great "starter" shawl for knitters looking to try simple lace and changing colors. Our very good friend Meghan knit this beautiful shawl over the summer and we've been dreaming about it ever since. Knit with one Stitch Together Studio Mini Skein Kit in Neon Rainbow and two skeins of Stitch Together Smooth Sock in Bertie Botts, it's a great shawl that brings a splash of color to an otherwise monochrome wardrobe....and something to look forward to knitting and wearing in the depths of our white Northern winter.
