

...from Wool & Honey!

Hi friends!

December already? Three weeks from Christmas Eve? Wow. If you can believe it, I'm just as surprised as you are. Now it's time to kick it into gear!

This week's pattern is an old favorite at Wool & Honey that we just bring out around the holidays. In 2008, a good friend saw these kitschy wine bottle hats in the Sundance catalog and commissioned me to knit 12 to top a case of wine. A very simple pattern, these make great conversation pieces at holiday parties!

If you're a first time reader, welcome. We're glad you're here. If you've been with us since the beginning, thanks again for your continued support--we wouldn't be here without you! At Wool & Honey, we believe that the best way to celebrate the holidays is with a handcrafted gift. Something special--a little slip of a silk scarf, a pair of fuzzy, wooly mitts, a handknit ornament--that with a little time, a little money and a little foresight could become the most treasured gift you give all year.

For those of you who've been asking, we can't re-send individual emails, but don't fret--you can catch up on our previous newsletters by clicking on our archives here.

Week Ten: Wine Bottle Hats

When I'm down to the 11th hour without a personalized gift to give, I turn to these little wine bottle hats. They're crazy quick to knit, perfect for stashbusting and best of all, they're hilarious. (Just watch the faces of your recipients--these are guaranteed to generate a few laughs!) Stop by your favorite local wine shop (mine's Cedar City Market, of course!), pick up a bottle of your favorite local wine (might I suggest 45 North's Pinot Grigio [pictured] or L. Mawby's Cremant Classic?) and you're set for your next holiday party.

Each kit will make six wine bottle hats.
