Hello, friends!

Week Two--wowza! Thank you so much for all of you who've already participated in our annual holiday tradition--there are just a few of the Delft Fingerless Mitts Kit left! I really love Week Two's project (I know--I say that every week)--these ornaments remind me of an Irish holiday, or a classic white Scandinavian one, complete with Glogg.

At Wool & Honey, we believe that the best way to celebrate the holidays is with a handcrafted gift.

Something special--a little slip of a silk scarf, a pair of fuzzy, wooly mitts, a handknit ornament--that with a little time, a little money and a little foresight could become the most treasured gift you give all year.

Every Friday, you'll receive an email revealing a special pattern we've written exclusively for the shop--one that can easily be tackled within the course of a week. (With a little effort, of course--these projects don't knit themselves!)

These patterns are super simple, even for beginner knitters. We make it that way because we realize that in addition to your knitting, there's a good chance you've got a few other things to tend to between now and the holidays. (Ahem!)

Knitting should be fun, not work. And certainly not stressful. Most of these projects are One-Skein Wonders--a pretty fantastic way to see light at the end of the knitting tunnel, even when you're elbow-deep in cookie dough.

With 12 full weeks ahead of us, if you pace yourself and try your best to keep up, you'll have a nice collection of gifts come December 25th.

Good luck, friends!

This year, just like last year, there are several ways to knit for everyone on your list. The Twelve Knits are being sold as kits--kits complete with yarn, pattern and a Wool & Honey project bag, with the option of adding needles if you need them. You can purchase one for delivery right to your doorstep or you can reserve one for pick-up at the shop.

And for those of you who've got a mountain of stash to knit through, we're offering a pattern-only option as well. Within 24 hours of your purchase, your pattern will be e-mailed to you in an easy-to-read PDF format that you can save and print as many times as you'd like.

This year, we're thrilled to be selling The Twelve Knits on our shiny new website, www.woolandhoney.com.

Take a peek around while you're shopping--there's a pretty good chance you'll find something you like!

The Twelve Knits of Christmas: Week Two

Aran Ornaments

The crisp scent of pine needles, fluffy snowflakes falling outside, sitting in front the of the fire curled up in a cozy, cabled sweater....my idea of a perfect holiday. This week's pattern--a trio of sweater-inspired Christmas ornaments--reminds me of a real Northern Christmas. One features three classic cables, another highlights a slipped stitch pattern and the third is simple stockinette. Stuffed with wool roving, a bit of lavender and hanging by an ecru satin ribbon secured with a tiny button, these ornaments double as fragrant sachets when you take the tree down in January.

But you knew that, right?*

I just got back from the annual Leland Fiber Festival at the Old Art Building (hence the late-night email!), but if you missed it, you can still check it out tomorrow (Saturday) from 10 to 5. Some of our favorite Michigan fiber artists are there--it's a local event not to miss.

The weather has been absolutely phenomenal this week--upper 70s and sun, sun, sun. Some might consider this the Peak Weekend for the changing leaves, although I just know we're going to have a full month of this gorgeous color. Happy weekend!
